

Aiden Faust received his MA in Historical Studies with a concentration in Public History from UMBC; received University of Baltimore Foundation Fund for Excellence; proposed "Social History in the Archives: Baltimore's Enduring Legacy" for publication, which was accepted as a book chapter in Baltimore Revisited: Social History for the 21st Century City, edited by Kate Drabinski and Nicole King; awarded the 2015 Joseph L. Arnold Prize for Outstanding Writing on Baltimore's History from the Baltimore City Historical Society; elected co-chair of the Special Collections and Archives Subgroup of the University System of Maryland and Affiliated Institutions Information Resources Advisory Group.

Ben Blake published "Making LGBT Baltimore History" in Baltimore OUTLoud newspaper; presented "Crowd Sourcing Metadata for Photographs of the LGBT Baltimore Community: An Interactive, Inexpensive and Low Tech Approach" at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Archives Conference panel presentation; served on Program Committee at the ArchivesSpace national members meeting at the Society of American Archivists conference; serviced on Program Committee at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Archives Conference.

Kyle Breneman was elected to serve as co-chair of the University System of Maryland and Affiliated Institutions Reporting and Analytics subgroup.

Maggie Dull was elected as Maryland Representative to the PTPL (Potomac Technical Processing Librarians) Board in October 2015; reappointed to the ALCTS (Association for Library Collections and Technical Services) Leadership Development Committee and appointed to the ALCTS CRS (Continuing Resource Section) Cataloging Committee in June 2016.

Mike Kiel presented "More than just Recycling: Transforming Information Literacy through High Impact Discipline Specific Instruction" at the Texas Library Association conference.

Lucy Holman serves as the Maryland Chapter Counselor on the American Library Association Council (Board of Directors); serves on the Steering Committee and Executive Board of the Maryland Library Association; serves on the editorial board of the Journal of New Librarianship.

Michael Schocet, Mike Kiel, and Lucy Holman served on Middle States Self Study Working Groups.

Mike Kiel, Natalie Burclaff, and Catherine Johnson published "Learning by doing: Developing a baseline information literacy assessment" in portal: Libraries and the Academy.

Natalie Burclaff published "Sampling the Menu: Exploring Search Results in Discovery Tools" in Discovery Tool Cookbook, edited by Nancy Fawley and Nikki Krysak; presented a workshop on the "Framework for Information Literacy" to instruction librarians at Nimitz Library, U.S. Naval Academy; presented a roundtable on social media at the Citizens for Maryland Libraries program; became the new Head of Information Literacy Initiatives.

Sean Hogan attended annual University System of Maryland and Affiliated Institutions All ILL meeting and presented a lightning talk on ethical resource sharing at the annual USMAI Interlibrary Loan meeting; presented a poster at MLA on "Assessing Access Services: Building a 5-Year Plan for Sustainable Assessment."

